CMU@104: Building dreams, Empowering communities, Securing the future

For the past 104 years, Central Mindanao University stands still as the bulwark of prowess, dexterity, knowledge, and camaraderie to its sons and daughters as they contributed significant changes and transformations to the community they represent with.

For three days (September 18-20), the entire CMU family celebrates with pride its 104th Unified Foundation Anniversary and Alumni Home Coming bearing the theme "Building dreams, Empowering communities, Securing the future."

"Again, we are gathered to celebrate the Founding Anniversary of our beloved Central Mindanao University," Dr. Soliven (CMU President) said. "This is the moment to meet fellow alumni, long-lost friends, former classmates, but more importantly we pay homage to the builders of this institution which made impact in our individual and collective lives."

This year's celebration highlights the tribute and honoring of the 1964 Golden, 1989 Silver Jubilee, with special participation of Batch 1984 Pearl for their outstanding accomplishments.

Part of the three-day celebration includes the inter-college socio-cultural activities, student leadership seminar, Federation of Agriculture Students in Mindanao Summit, faculty seminar, alumni and students' night, grand parade, simultaneous college activities, open house of university dormitories, rodeo festival, among others.

In addition, today's celebration invites all Batang Musuan who are

Meanwhile, Maramag Municipal Mayor Jose V. Obedencio expresses his felicitations to the CMU community who gathered in celebrating the event. “Tagged as the academic paradise of the south, CMU continued to touch the many lives as it has developed from a small community school to a competently – performing and enhanced institution of excellence and relevance in instruction, research, extension and production,” Honorable Obedencio said.

He added that all these years, CMU endures to present the vital learning tools equipping youths with social consciousness and competencies that crash the bondage of adversity and unlock further opportunities to bring about change and improvement in the quality of people’s lives.
